- #20 (March 13, 02:28 am) – Mew my im is being bad
- #21 (March 13, 03:45 am) – You have spent 7 years fighting a slow and deadly battle. In those years you have pushed aside people that love you. You whine and complain about your stress level yet do nothing to fix them. You just make it worse w your worry. You should be married to the one woman who has stuck by you like no other. She is everything a wife should be for her husband yet when she got a little bit older all the sudden she wasn't the same looking person yet she was the same woman who stood by you during your war. Now you chase 18 year olds and young "pretty" women who can't stand by you like Elizabeth has. Most won't stand by because there is nothing in it for them. You killing your self James and you have your self to blame. Grow up and at least see what you lost. Then learn how to stop whining about how you had to do this or that and it's just killing you. At least stop and relax. Don't say you can't because you can. Just realize what you lost. Make choices on how to better your health. Stop telling people how to fix themselves when they don't ask. Your ideas are based off what you have. Think what I have then advise. You're not in the position to advise anyone. We need to advise you.

#22 (March 13, 05:23 am) – Sorry if that was harsh.

#23 (March 15, 11:10 pm) – James, I know we aren't speaking but I'm a little worried. Matt took me to a meeting at work. He brought me home at 9 this morning. I asked him to join me when he got home. But he never did. Have you heard anything?

#24 (March 24, 06:15 pm) – James I know we aren't speaking but I need help. Advice really

#25 (March 26, 08:25 pm) – You are truly a child. To go and ask Matt what I have and haven't done. You are starting a war. One you will not win. You thinking I would upset such a wonderful person. You have only yourself to blame. If you want to know what I am doing or what I have done ask me not someone who doesn't speak to you nor wants to ever again. Have the decency that your parents should have given you and asked me your self not tried to start a war with me. I pushed you away for a reason when I pushed you away I pushed her away for her own good. I have not spoken to her since. And this is the reason because you would blame others, my self included, for the unhappiness you have caused with your cheating heart. You have used me to hurt her. You have hurt me and her. Do not inquire about me to Matthew ever again. Leave him alone leave me alone do not disturb us again ever. If you do you are going to cause a war with me and you will lose this war as you have already lost the one you think you are fighting still.
