Criminal James Arnold Allen of Ada, Oklahoma Tries Expunging DUI Arrest, Court and Probation Records -- And still Stolen Valor Phony!

September 20, 2022

Jimmy just can't seem to get it right because he filed a motion to expunge his DUI arrest and conviction, however, in so doing he just left a record for posterity. As far as I know, no one has the records of his conviction or probation, there was only the arrest report with Ada PD, but thanks for the admission and full record, wacko! This admission will live here eternally, and on the Oklahoma Courts site (OSCN and ODCR).

See, James, in his never-ending crazinessmeets-stupidity, doesn't realize that Oklahoma is one of few states that automatically seal DUI 1st Offenses when they're deferred. His arrest report was from an internet archive back in 2012 and was no longer available for a records request, however, I was able to use it and gain this admission, in which states his probationary period, plea, court disposition; everything I couldn't access.. Thanks, Jimmy!

HOOK...LINE...SINKER...

The petitioner: James Arnold Allen (Ada, Oklahoma)

DOB: 06/22/1975

CASE Number: [CRIMINAL] CM-2007-00926

Count 1 DUI - Liquior

James Arnold Allen received one-year

probation, a sentence deferred by a plea of 'No

Contest'

Also interesting is that this document, item #6 is says "No felony or misdemeanor charges are currently pending against Petitioner", however, funny that his Child Support contempt case is still pending, albeit held. I'll have to pass this information along to some birdies because that #6 is a falsification; like that time Jimmy told the Ada Police Officer, "I was in the army, stationed at Ft. Sill," even though he never made it beyond reception company [complete failure not even rising to the level of a washout], and never served anywhere near Ft. Sill.

Enjoy this one, folks. I'm gonna be busy -- as will my printer -- for awhile finishing this box of court filings to send to James' Dad and Stepmom, they should very much enjoy reading his rants about them! Until next time!
